

Pro-Choice Day of Action

Thursday, February 23

*Breaking News! UPDATE: Hundreds at Capitol for women's rights

Today, Monday February 20th, 1,100 grassroots activist showed up at the Capitol for a peaceful protest against the War on Women! They lined the sidewalks from the General Assembly Building to the Capitol forcing legislators to walk through their silent tunnel. This is amazing! SB 484 was supposed to be voted on by the House today, but they chose to pass it by! We'll see what happens tomorrow.

People are fired up! And... It's not too late to volunteer or to pledge action for the Pro-Choice Coalition Pro-Choice Day of Action THIS Thursday February 23. Phone banks are planned in Virginia Beach, Richmond, Roanoke and Arlington. Sign up now to help or simply spread the word and remind your friends/family /co-workers to send an email or make a phone call to their legislators February 23rd about bills affecting women's reproductive healthcare and rights.

Help continue putting this enormous pressure on anti-choice, anti-women legislators! We can win!
