

The League of Women Voters of Virginia

Will host a Reception for the Virginia Redistricting Map Competition

Tuesday, March 22, 2011

Library of Virginia
800 East Broad Street
Richmond Virginia

2 to 5 p.m.

The maps developed by teams of Virginia college students will be on display.

These House of Delegate, State Senate and Congressional alternative district maps will highlight what the districts may look like if legislators were not in charge of drawing their own districts.

The reception is open to the public.

Judges of the maps, Dr. Thomas Mann of Brookings Institution and Dr. Norman Ornstein of the American Enterprise Institute will introduce the winning teams in various categories.

Dr. Michael McDonald, of George Mason University
Dr. Quentin Kidd of Christopher Newport University have been working with the student teams
