

Standing Room Only for WLRT on League Day in Richmond

League Day at the General Assembly was attended by Leaguers from 12 Leagues around the state with over 40 people in total. Many arrived the day before and attended a strategy session to hear the latest happenings from Carol Noggle, our Legislative Coordinator. Attendees felt the session answered the questions on their minds and helped them better understand what to pass on to their legislators.

The first hour on Wednesday morning saw an overflow crowd turn out for the Women's Legislative Roundtable. Delegates Boysko (86 Dist.), Hays (77), Mullin (93), and Rasoul (11), as well as Senators Favola (31 Dist.), Locke (7), and Lucas (18), spoke to the group about their hopes for the session. Leaguers spent the rest of the morning visiting their legislators and attending committee meetings.

The General Assembly convened at noon and recognized Leaguers sitting in the Senate and House galleries. They welcomed them and thanked them for their interest in government.
